The purpose of the processing is necessary to achieve the continuation of business activities. This cannot be reasonably achieved by any other means.

The lawful bases for processing personal information are “contract” and “legal obligation”

The recipients of personal information will only be third parties where it is essential for contract or legal purposes.

We share no information outside the UK, except where specifically requested by the person giving us their own personal information.

Personal information is held for 7 years or longer if legally required.

Within GDPR you have the following rights – right to be informed, right of access, right of rectification, right to erasure, right to restrict processing, right to data portability, right to object and rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling.

You have the right to withdraw your consent.

You have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority.

You are not under a statutory or contractual obligation to provide personal data.

We have no automated decision making or profiling and never share data with third parties for marketing purposes.

All goods carried and/or lifted are subject to RHA Conditions of Carriage 2009, limit of liability £1300 per tonne, copies available on request.
